

I SUPPORT ANY AND ALL changes to the current FCC indecency standards that will allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on the public airwaves.

The US airwaves have long been censored and controlled by the beliefs of anti-freedom organizations such as the American Family Foundation. It is long overdue for us to join the rest of the world such as Germany, Switzerland, France (just to name a few), in having at least slightly relaxed restrictions around what's shown on our airwaves.

Our children are surrounded by these things anyways, by pretending that they do not exist, in my opinion teaches our children the wrong principles. We as a country are way too afraid of nudity and expletives in comparison to our European counter parts.

Teaching children that the narrow mindedness of a small segment of the population can control a nation is the wrong message to send. PLEASE DO NOT BEND TO THE AFA's email campaign.

Thanks for your time.
